About Devi

Devi Mambouka, also known as Masma Dream World, is a multi-disciplinary artist and sound therapist. Known for her otherworldly and haunting exploration of the shadow side, Devi's music is heavily influenced by her multiethnic heritage, sacred lineage and personal evolution to overcome trauma, abuse and addiction. Born in Gabon, Africa to a Gabonese ambassador and Singaporean mother, Devi immigrated to the United States at age 12, grew up in the Bronx and became one of the youngest influential voices in the NYC nightlife scene. She promoted parties and DJ-ed in legendary NYC venues like Son Cubano, Lit Lounge, and Lotus. She curated music for the 2012 Alicia Keys' Black Ball Redux.

Devi later went on to start a non-profit organization, America Mambouka, to provide art supplies to an after school program in Harlem connecting artists, musicians and DJs with underprivileged youths to promote artistic expression. Yoko Ono and Sean Lennon were among some of the first artists to join charitable efforts through the organization. Devi was also a singing waitress at the Famous Sammy's Steakhouse performing in front of many legends including Clive Davis.

In 2017, Devi created Vibrobath, the world's first vibroacoustic sound bath which was featured in BuzzFeed's "Ultimate Bucket List." In 2020, Vibrobath incorporated as a registered B-corp and expanded offerings like the Vibrobath Voice Design Course—empowering individuals to use their voice for change—and the Vibrobath OnDemand platform—providing members with access to a multimedia library of meditations, guided practices and immersive experiences. Vibrobath's offerings incorporate sound technologies, vibroacoustic therapy and body tuning. Devi is a degree sound therapist by the Globe Institute of Sound Healing in San Francisco, is a level 3 Jikiden Reiki practitioner and trained in Feng-Shui vibrational remedies. Her most recent album as Masma Dream World, Play At Night, was released in Fall 2020 by Northern Spy Records. Devi resides in Brooklyn, NY.

About Kelly

Kelly Berry is a functional movement therapist, brand strategist, writer and entrepreneur. She specializes in guiding individuals and groups towards greater integration of physical and emotional awareness utilizing yoga and core movements, breath integration and mindfulness. Formerly a Washington D.C. native, she was the lead curator and instructor for the yoga program at the U.S. State Department and yoga teacher for sports teams including the Washington Mystics.

As a brand strategist and consultant, Kelly has held leadership roles for marketing and communications teams at public relations agencies, technology start-ups, and lifestyle brands. Prior to joining as founder and CMO of Vibrobath, Kelly served as marketing and communications director at Forth Road Health, a consulting agency supporting the development of psychedelic assisted therapy. # Vibroath, as it exists today, was born out of the fires of the pandemic and the deep internal and personal developmental work of both its founders.

This is the home to Shadow Work.

Why we are here.

Devi and Kelly are both longtime practitioners of shadow work bringing to Vibrobath their individual approaches and also transforming and alchemizing together.

A shared commitment to elevating diverse voices.

We are committed to sharing shadow work as a method for self inquiry—to make the subconscious seen—a way to observe the shadows and embrace the darkness to find ultimate spiritual and creative freedom and self transformation.

Vibroath was born out of necessity and a desire to create what we, as seasoned spiritual practitioners, wanted to exist for ourselves but were unable to find. Vibrobath's first product, Vb OnDemand, is a source of inspiration offering a collection of advanced meditations, breathwork and sound healing practices to assist in the advanced work of consciousness exploration.

BE A SPIRITUAL PUNK

“Shadow work can be pleasurable...can be painful...can be a path to deeply getting to know your most honest version of you.”

— Vibrobath

Hello. It's your higher self calling.

All the sounds, breath, guided imagery and reflections offered on Vb OnDemand are delivered from an authentic state and channeled through our highest selves. These meditations which have the power to facilitate deep personal inquiry, can also be consumed as entertainment and a powerful exploration of sound and energy movement.

We encourage all our members seasoned in the acts of shadow work and personal development practices to experience the platform for themselves. As we know, the most impactful knowledge is wisdom, and wisdom comes from experience.

BECOME A MEMBER

Setting a strong foundation for your shadow work practice is important.

For more recommendations on how to begin please check out our discovery series for the Vb shadow work tutorial which is a great primer or refresher.

For additional individual support, we recommend booking a personal reading in 30, 60, or 90 minute increments.
